

A DILL-IGHTFUL GUIDE TO PITTSBURGHESE

Some phrases in the story "The Cheesiest Pierogi in Pittsburgh" may be confusing for those who don't live in or around Pittsburgh. Below are some that are used in the story and what they mean.

Yinz - you all/everyone
Jagoff - jerk
Yinzer - someone who lives in Pittsburgh
Dupa - bum
Irn - iron
Aht - out

Chipped ham - thinly shaved ham
Wuter - what are you
Slippy - slippery
Nebby - a nosey person
Champyinz - champions
Dubbya - W = Win

Steel curtain - Steelers defence
Buccos - Pittsburgh Pirates
Abaht - about
Dahntahn - downtown
Warsh - wash
Redd up - clean up
Gutchies - underwear
Babushka - Polish headwear
Burn - curb

Buggy - grocery cart
Pennywood is open - your fly is down
Dahn - down
Jeet yet? - did you eat yet?
Pixburgh - Pittsburgh
N'at - and that
Crick - creek

